

ABSTRACT

Simanjuntak Asriani, 2019, "The Role of Teachers in Infusing Religious Character, Discipline, Environmental Care and Responsibility towards Students in Private MTs Al-Amiin Tax Village in 2018-2019 Academic Year Academic Year." Thesis. Rantauprapat: Faculty of Teacher Training and Education (FKIP) Labuhanbatu.

Character education is an effort to form a generation of noble character and character will bring a positive impact on students towards future success. The purpose of this study was to determine the teacher's role in instilling religious character, discipline, caring for the environment and responsibility towards students. The method used by researchers is descriptive qualitative using research instruments such as questionnaires, interviews and documentation. The research site is in the Al-Amiin Private MTs of the North Labuhanbatu Regency Tax District from May to August 2019. The research subjects are teachers and students while the object is the teacher's role in instilling religious character, discipline, caring for the environment and responsibility towards students. Analysis of the Role of the teacher in instilling Religious Character that is the teacher greeting when entering and leaving the class is always categorized with a percentage of 100%, the Discipline Character of the teacher admonishes students firmly if there are students who do not do homework is always categorized with a percentage of 67% Character of Environmental Care disposing of trash in the place is always categorized with a percentage of 83% and the Responsibility character of the teacher provides an opportunity to ask questions about lessons that are not understood always categorized with a percentage of 92%. The results of the research the role of the teacher in instilling religious character, discipline, care for the environment and responsibility that is the teacher provides a motivator, encouragement and inspirational in developing attitudes and behavior in students themselves so that quality and dignity for the nation and state. Based on the above research it can be concluded that the role of the teacher in instilling religious character, discipline, environmental care and responsibility towards students should take precedence in themselves so that they are able to apply it to students and can be used as role models for the homeland and the nation.

Keywords: Teacher Role, Character, Religious, Discipline, Environmental Care, Responsibility

